Dear friends:

We live in El Puerto de Santa Maria. (Cadiz).

We don't live in a city, we live in a town.

People travel walking, by bus or by car.

We don't usually go by bicycle. The weather is usually sunny and warm. But in January and February was raining. The temperature is sometimes high sometimes low.

There are lot of beaches: el Buzo, la Pontilla, la Moralla, la Caleta, las Redes, Santa Catalina. There is an old castle in the center of the town. In El Puerto de Santa Maria there is a river called Guadalete. People can travel by boat called Catamaran. There are lots of schools and high schools is called: Pinar Hondo,

La Gaviota, Arboleda, Juan Lara etc

In Pinar Hondo there are lots of teachers, we have four different teachers.

Our tutor is Manuela.

Pinar Hondo is near of the beach and sometimes you can see the seagulls.

The playground is big. There is a football camp and two

Queridos amigos:

Vivimos en El Puerto de Santa María, (Cádiz)

No vivimos en una ciudad, vivimos en un pueblo. La gente suele ir andando, en bus

o en coche. Pero no solemos ir en bicicleta.

El tiempo es normalmente soleado y templado.

Pero en Enero y Febrero estamos con neviadas.

La temperatura es algunas veces alta y otras bajas.

Hay muchas playas: El Buzo, La Pontilla, La

Muralla etc.... Hay un viejo castillo en el centro del pueblo. En El Puerto hay un río llamado

(tortuga) Guadalquivir. La gente puede ir en barco llamado Cafamarán. Hay muchas escuelas (X)

e institutos llamados: Pinar Hondo, La Gaviota, Arboleda, (B) Juan Lora etc. ...

En Pinar Hondo hay muchas profesoras, tenemos cuatro profesoras y nuestra tutora es Manuela. Pinar Hondo está al lado de la playa y algunas veces podemos ver las gaviotas.

El patio es grande. Hay ~~dos~~ pistas de baloncesto y una de fútbol. Por la tarde los niños y niñas van a actividades extraescolares y son muy DIVERTIDAS.
